

City of Salisbury

MARYLAND

Proclamation

WHEREAS, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender and income levels; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence is widespread and effects over 4 million Americans each year, and one in three Americans have witnessed an incident of domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, children that grow up in violent homes are believed to be abused and neglected at a rate higher than the national average; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence costs the nation billions of dollars annually in medical expenses, police and court costs, shelters, foster care, sick leave, absenteeism and non-productivity; and

WHEREAS, only a coordinated community effort will put a stop to this heinous crime; and

WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to show support for the numerous organizations and individuals who provide critical advocacy, services and assistance to victims;

NOW THEREFORE, I, James Ireton, Jr., Mayor of the City of Salisbury, do hereby proclaim October, 2010 as in our City and urge all our citizens to work together to eliminate domestic violence from our community.

“DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH”

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Salisbury this 20th day of September, 2010.

James Ireton, Jr., Mayor
