

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender, and income levels; and,

WHEREAS, domestic violence is widespread and affects over 4 million Americans each year; and,

WHEREAS, one in three Americans have witnessed an incident of domestic violence; and,

WHEREAS, children that grow up in violent homes are believed to be abused and neglected at a rate higher than the national average; and,

WHEREAS, domestic violence costs the nation billions of dollars annually in medical expenses, police and court costs, shelters, foster care, sick leave, absenteeism and non-productivity; and,

WHEREAS, only a coordinated community effort will put a stop to this heinous crime; and,

WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to show support for the numerous organization and individuals who provide critical advocacy, services and assistance to victims.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Paul A Miller, Mayor of the City of Orangeburg, South Carolina, do hereby proclaim the month of October as in the City of Orangeburg and urge our citizens to work together to eliminate domestic violence from our community.

"Domestic Violence Awareness Month"
