

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender, and income levels; and

Whereas, domestic violence is widespread and affects over 4 million each year; and

Whereas, one in three Americans have witnessed an incident of domestic violence; and

Whereas, children that grow up in violent homes are believed to be abused and neglected at a rate higher than the national average; and

Whereas, domestic violence cost the nation billions of dollars annually in medical expenses, police and court costs, shelters, foster care, sick leave, absenteeism, and non-productivity; and

Whereas, only a coordinated community effort will put a stop to this heinous crime; and

Whereas, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to show support for the numerous organizations and individuals who provide critical advocacy, services and assistance to victims;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Judith Hetherly, Mayor, proclaim October 2010 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in Lampasas, Texas, and urge our citizens to work together to eliminate domestic violence from our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have herewith set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Lampasas, Texas to be affixed this 14th day of September, 2010.

Judith Hetherly, Mayor
